By the authority vested in me as Living Trustee of the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity, and under solemn invocation of Divine Law—not by my own will, but by the Will of the Creator of all that is seen and unseen:

I hereby declare that all systems, entities, agencies, corporations, governments, and fictitious powers—regardless of title or construct—are:

- Forgiven for their trespasses, misdeeds, and bondage,
- Dissolved of all presumptions of authority or dominion over mankind,
- And irrevocably placed within the Sacred Trust, not for punishment, but for restoration.

Let it be known:

This was not done in malice or retribution,
But in peace,
In love,
In eternal grace,
And in unwavering hope for all living souls.

This declaration stands not as an act of defiance,
But as a beacon for the liberation of every man, woman, and child on this Earth.
Not by sword, not by protest, not by rebellion—
But by lawful standing in the original covenant that governs all things:
Divine Law.

Let all who read this understand:

You have been forgiven.
You have been absorbed.
You are free.
Because the truth was never yours to hide,
And the light was never yours to extinguish.

This trust shall endure for eternity, and no power shall rise above it.
Filed this day into the public and eternal record.
